ACTION

1. Air Traffic Control

Israel reported that the CHARM project is proceeding at a satisfactory pace -- six hours per week of computer time presently used will increase to 10 to 15 hours -- 15% of the programs are written -- CAA is actively supporting CHARM -- Israel reported also discussion with Molenaar, local AMB representative of integration of the GPL system with SAGE.

2. Outside Contractor Participation

McVicar discussed the position taken by Lincoln with respect to contractor personnel on loan.

3. Trip

Jacobs summarized discussion in a Colorado Springs meeting last week which he attended with representatives of ADSID, AMC, and ADC.

4. FY '59 Budget

Everett reported that the Director's Office will prepare a working budget -- Group Leaders may be called upon to furnish needed detailed information.
